SARAH

You, other Doctor, you said it was 'good to see me again after all these years.' When was the last time we saw each other?

THIRTEENTH DOCTOR

Long time ago. It's been well over a thousand years since I wore that face.

SARAH

But what happened to me?

FOURTH DOCTOR

She probably can't say, Sarah, less it do more damage to our timeline. But you wouldn't want to travel with this old man... and woman... forever, would you?

THIRTEENTH DOCTOR

Right then, let's see what we got... Ah ha! Yes! You see this, Doctor?

FOURTH DOCTOR

I'm sorry, Doctor, but your friends are dead. They're barely more than walking corpses.

THIRTEENTH DOCTOR

But that's just it, innit? 'Barely more than corpses' is 'still alive.' You see all that activity in the brain? Come with me.

OOD_S4_M1_POST

FOURTH DOCTOR

So tell me, Doctor, what's next for you? What's your plan?

THIRTEENTH DOCTOR

My plan is you meet me at the coordinates I'll send to your TARDIS. I'd invite you to come with, but, you know, same person, different times, in the TARDIS, at the same time...

FOURTH DOCTOR

Bad news. Of course. Well, I have some things I must take care of, so I will see you after that.

THIRTEENTH DOCTOR

Splendid! See you there.
